Handpicked

- Joseph Mellot Sincerite $65
Sauvignon Blanc
Loire Valley, France
A pale golden colour, clear and brilliant. Attractive aromatic nose combining floral notes (white flowers) with typical sauvignon aromas (citrus fruits). Full and expressive on the palate, with very good aromatic persistence. Its aromatic "enthusiasm" and its perfect balance of tastes make this a very appealing wine
- Roland Lavantureux Petit Chablis $110
Chardonnay
Chablis FRANCE
Essentially an unwooded chardonnay, fermented and aged in stainless steel, the wine is aged on the lees for 5-10 months, depending on the vintage. Succulent fruit and a driving line of fresh acidity, the nose bursts with ripe green apple and a floral perfume which carries through on the fresh yet textural palate
- 2013 Domaine Billaud-Simon Chablis 'Vaillons' Cru $120
Chardonnay
Chablis FRANCE
A Premier Cru vineyard, Vaillons displays all the hallmark of top level Chablis; a fine, delicate nose laced with lemon, apple and oyster shell. The palate is pure, elegant in its style with racy acidity providing the structure and freshness. Again lemon, green apple and a wheat/meal complexity derived from lees contact create the long, complex palate
- Chard Farm $130
'Viper Vineyard' Pinot Noir
Central Otago NZ
The complex bouquet displays floral tones, dark red cherry fruit, with spice and dried herb earthiness in the background. Quite dense cherry fruit gives way to fine mouth coating tannins that push the cherry and herbal flavours to the back of the palate for a long lingering finish
- Mike Press $60
Pinot Noir
Adelaide Hills SA
Bright cherry fruit, spice and plum, very drinkable though not denying the earthy complexity that pinot lovers expect
