

Luxury chic and politics meet in the nation's capital

An iconic Canberra establishment that is steeped in Australian political history, QT Canberra is a unique designer hotel that celebrates its history through bold design, a mix of quirky artifacts, bespoke furniture and daring use of colour and art.

Located in the emerging cultural precinct of New Acton, the former Lakeside Hotel property has been home to many a handshake deal and long lunch. The redesigned building will embrace new technology, distinctive art and cutting edge design.

Concept restaurant Capitol Bar & Grill offers a range of fine wine, bistro classics and future favorites with an Italian twist, whilst the hotel will offer a number of exclusive retreats, and stylish guest suites with the quirky touch of QT.
